

Malou Berg's new CD "OMINE" opens up your heart and lifts your senses. Listen! Let the music flow!

Malou Berg is known for her fantastic voice and creative musical expression. HOYA, a precursor to her new album OMINE, made critics euphoric. One said: "Malou Berg surprises, builds bridges..." And another: "...a musical experience with instruments, voices and a language that reaches across all borders of the world."

"OMINE" has a more meditative undertone. It is beautiful and melodic, and yet uplifting and full of rhythm. It is joyful music with words that Malou says she has borrowed from a Pleiadian language. "ia Omine ama"! - Open your heart! Set your soul free! Listen! Let the music flow!

Malou Berg is an artist who dares to be different. Dares to be herself, which is brave and unusual in today's commercially focused music industry. And the result is unique music. Malou Berg's musical creativity knows no borders. She has progressed from receiving a grant from STIM to go to University of Berklee's music school through acting and singing in cabaret, film, and TV-programs, pop music recording artist, reaching the Swedish finals of the Eurovision Song Contest, composing and singing award-winning gospel songs, sacral and choir music, and now she has created a new kind of world music.

CRITICS ABOUT OMINE:

"... This is an album no true music-lover can be without. It sings fresh like a spring brook. A little afro-inspired, a little of the northern Sámi wilderness, painfully beautiful choir voices and calm rhythms that weave harmonies into beautiful songs. Not to talk about the imaginative language...which you still understand.

"...It is so lovely that this excellent singer can enrich our musical lives this way. I feel an incredible inner harmony every time I listen to the record. And thereby I think Malou has reached her goal. Sit down, relax, listen and enjoy. Let yourself be rocked into Malou Berg's wonderful world."

Per-Roger Carlsson, Sundsvalls Tidning

"Wonderfully atmospheric. The music makes you happy. It is brave to invent a new language. It is exciting that you somehow still understand what it means."

Blossom Tainton, artist, fitness consult

"Meditative music, so beautiful... This is balsam for your soul."

Janne "Loffe" Carlsson, artist, musician, actor

MACD-0509

CDA Distribution AB,
Box 4225, SE-102 65 Stockholm
Orderphone: +46 8 442 11 20,
Fax +46 8 442 11 33
e-mail cda@cda.se

Listen to samples www.malou.se